

According to the new infrastructure requirements, all standard servers must be configured with 32GB RAM.